COMMENTS:

This bill would allow state employees that are members of the National Guard or the military reserve and on active duty after September 11, 2001, specific compensation benefits.

The January 7, 2002, amendment added the compensation benefits provisions. The department's analysis of the bill As Proposed To Be Amended concerning income exclusions and deductions for survivors of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, no longer applies. This bill no longer impacts the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
